ACCENT THE SECOND SYLLABLE

When you go to your garage don't say "Ten gallons of gas"—say ten gallons of SOCONY (pronounced SO-KŌ-NY). Come out good and strong on that second syllable so that there can be no mistake—so that your dealer cannot by any trick of his imagination give you anything but the Standard Oil Company of New York's clear, homogeneous motor fuel.

Wherever you see the Red, White and Blue SOCONY Sign you are sure of getting SOCONY Motor Gasoline. It is the sign of a reliable dealer and of the world's best gasoline. That is why motorists who know are buying gasoline by name. They ask for SOCONY—and in a way that can't be misunderstood—by a big strong accent on the second syllable.

Look for the SOCONY Sign—you will find it on first-class garages and supply stations.
